TINGLEY IN FAVOR OF INDEPENDENT PLANT APPRAISAL

Chairman of Water Committee
Recommends Action to Find
Basis for City Offer to the Water Company.

Action along the line of independent appraisal with a view to deciding on a fair offer to be made by the city for the purchase of the water company's plant is recommended in a report made by Alderman Clyde Tingley, chairman of the water committee, to the city council. In connection with his report Alderman Tingley recommended our engineering firm from which to choose the appraiser on whose advice the city will act in making an offer to the water company.

Apart from the matter in it the report furnished interest to the council and the gallery. Alderman Hammond and Swiger, chairman Tingley's committee on the committee, wanted to know why they hadn't been consulted with regard to the recommendations and the report. They were plainly put out over the way in which the chairman had presented the report. The report was ordered filed with the clerk.

The four engineering firms recommended by Alderman Tingley have made them a reasonable offer. We do not know just what that offer should be. But we can get it from those whose business it is to submit such.

Attached hereto are the names with contracts and recommendations of four firms of appraisal engineers to whom such work is referred. An itemized valuation report of water supply plants has been extended to them by the taxpayers of hundreds of cities, many of which have debts worth millions of dollars.

It seems to me that if we are to earnest about this affair as our taxpayers demand of us it is necessary to go further than this list to secure the best ability to answer all our questions. A report from any of these firms is all that we need to have in the present water supply company. And that is not what our people want. Remotely submitted.

CLYDE TINGLEY
Chairman Water Committee
